Disability Provisions

What is Disability Provisions?

Disability Provisions are practical arrangements put in place during the HSC exams to reduce disadvantage in an exam situation. Disability Provisions require an online application with supporting evidence to NESA, our school Learning and Support Teacher will assist in completing this. Common Disability Provisions can include: rest breaks, small group supervision, extra time, a reader or scribe, use of a computer, diabetic provisions, coloured paper and food and water.

How do I know if my child needs to apply for Disability Provisions?

If your child has a diagnosed disability that will affect them during exams e.g. Anxiety, Diabetes, Irlen Syndrome, Crohn's disease etc., our Learning and Support Teacher is able to submit an application to NESA. The student should have received the requested provision in school examinations in the past. It is stressed that NESA may not grant provisions but each case is viewed and assessed individually.

The definition of 'disability' in the Disability Discrimination Act 1992 includes: Physical, intellectual, psychiatric, sensory, neurological, and learning disabilities, as well as physical disfigurement and the presence in the body of disease-causing organisms. Disability provisions will only be approved if there is a clear disadvantage to a student.

Completing the application

Our Learning and Support Teacher will assist you in completing this application. The application has to be completed online by the school and submitted with extensive documentation. Parents and carers are required to supply supporting medical documents from the relevant practitioner that confirms diagnosis of a particular existing condition and states the affect it will have under examination conditions. The diagnosis needs to be current, less than 12 months old. Medical practitioners are also required to complete a 'Medical Provisions' form that can be collected by your student from Miss Pedemont in the Learning and Support staffroom (next to B9). Students are also required to complete their own declaration – this form can also be collected from Miss Pedemont. More information on Disability Provisions can be found at: <https://educationstandards.nsw.edu.au/wps/portal/nesa/11-12/hsc/disability-provisions>

If you would like to discuss this further or have any questions please don't hesitate to contact Miss Pedemont on 02 6925 3611.
